

Level One Foundations Course
Module 6 Quiz
LEADERSHIP

1. An active member is someone who
  - a. attends meetings regularly.
  - b. trains to increase their skills.
  - c. follows-through on jobs they agreed to perform.
  - d. all of the above.
2. In CAP, the concept of “valuing” can be described as the
  - a. amount of money paid to an individual for their work.
  - b. idea that each member has worth and deserves respect.
  - c. practice of new members saluting officers.
  - d. process of recruiting and training new members.
3. Which of the following does the article not cite as an example of valuing?
  - a. Provide members opportunities for personal achievement.
  - b. Help members make new friends.
  - c. Allowing members to make discoveries about themselves.
  - d. Placing a monetary value on each member’s work in CAP.
4. The concept of volunteerism includes
  - a. achievement.
  - b. recognition.
  - c. personal growth.
  - d. all of the above.

5. Civil Air Patrol needs to work toward providing new members with
  - a. a uniform.
  - b. the ability to see direct results from their personal effort.
  - c. military drill instruction.
  - d. guidance on saluting.
6. When leading volunteers, keep in mind that members need
  - a. all of the below.
  - b. tasks that match each members interests.
  - c. reasonable tasks and fair deadlines.
  - d. an understanding of the "big picture."
7. Members have an expectation of
  - a. easily to understand instruction.
  - b. adequate training.
  - c. meaningful feedback.
  - d. all of the above.
8. CAP leaders need to provide members with
  - a. discipline and encouragement.
  - b. recognition and rewards.
  - c. taskings and time.
  - d. locations and times.
9. An effective mentoring program matches
  - a. needs and desires.
  - b. recognition and rewards.
  - c. a new person with an experienced person.
  - d. supervisor and subordinate.
10. A mentor has a responsibility to
  - a. help a new member get started in CAP.
  - b. complete tasks for the new member.
  - c. solve problems for the new member.
  - d. answer all of the new members questions.